It would really be nice if you put the text for the assignments on the web too. Do you know how painful it is to look back and forth between a text book and a computer screen while typing?

I had a great time in this class with you. Make sure you continue to code in class. That is a very strong way to show how each concept may be used. Great job! Would love to have you as a teacher again.

Additional Comments:

I really liked the structure of the tests. I didn't feel like I had to know every thing on a hand test. The lab portions of the tests were too long for me, I ran out of time. I wish I had more time to learn practical uses of pointers / Dynamic memory.

Additional Comments:

Alex,
 You are the best programming teacher I've ever had. All the other teachers (like you mentioned on your slides) I've had just use the whiteboard and call it teaching. Thanks so much for teaching this, I will definitely be signing up for your Developmental Robotics class! That stuff looks so fun!

Additional Comments:

I really enjoyed this class. The labs were especially helpful and there was usually plenty of office hours to get questions answered. I think pointers should have been covered earlier because they were an easy concept and helped my understanding. I think the first mid term should have been a bit more challenging because the second one was unexpected.

Thanks for a great class!

Alex,

As a freshman I was very nervous going into a programming class. I wasn't sure if I could handle it. Having you as a teacher changed all of that though. I enjoyed every single class of yours and plan to take your more advanced class in the future. You alone made me feel better about my first semester in college.

Thank you,
Ben

Dr. Staytcher did an excellent job of recognizing and catering to the fact that there was a wide range of experience in this class. He gave everyone the ability to challenge themselves without being over extended.

Additional Comments:

You were a
 I thought good teacher and I liked the live coding. However, I did not think the second tests were super fair, because I made sure I knew how to do everything on the study guide and the tests didn't seem similar to the study guide at all
