Additional Comments:

Many ECPE Professors are Dull, and do not present the material in a way that I learn it well during lecture, so I normally do not attend lectures and learn the material on my own. I have not skipped any lectures for this course because Stoytchev did such a great job.

Additional Comments:

I greatly enjoyed this course and ^{having} Prof. Stoytchev as an instructor. The grading for this course is very fair and I really appreciate the numerous opportunities to make up points when we slip up. It allows us to show what we do know instead of just being penalized for what we don't.

Additional Comments:

Having come into this semester with minimal experience in both programming and digital logic, I found this course appreciatively difficult. The labs, homework, and lectures were all well planned, and extremely helpful when I took the time required.
Thank you.

Additional Comments:

There needs to be more lab space and machines with Quartus! Many times I could not find a place to work when needed.

Alex is a funny & entertaining professor.

He tries really hard to explain everything.

He just tries to fit a lot in one lecture so most of the time its hard to keep a track of all the things he is talking about.

He also needs to do more problems in the class.

 only thing I can suggest is making quarrels easily accessed out of labs. It is possible to get on at certain computers but the process is not well know and very complicated
