1.4) What helped your learning the most in this course?

■ Being forced to present our project work multiple times during the semester was a great developmental experience

■ His lectures were very well spelled out and it was great to have them available as videos for later review. He also had some fun and interactive activities that made the lectures more engaging.

■ Homeworks, attending office hours, and the code examples on the class website.

■ Interactive lectures

■ I really like the way professor conducted in-class experiments. It basically gave me the clear idea about the concepts and made learning fun.

■ Most interesting, knowledgeable and fun way of teaching. Tougher topics like FFT, HMM, etc. taught with utmost clarity and ease. Best instructor at Iowa State.

■ Professor's class teachings and an interactive environment.

■ Professor sometimes bring some stuffs to make student understand concepts. The particle filter part was easy to understand. Thanks.

■ Proffessor postings

■ The hw and projects in the course helped me a lot in understanding the concepts of computational perception.Also the live experiments in the class were very useful and interesting

■ The lecturer is very kind and professional, strongly recommended.

■ The lectures helped tremendously with my learning for the course content and for the homework.

■ The things that helped me learn the most in this course were the class sessions, how things were explained, the sample codes shown in class, and the variety of assignments. Also, having enough time to learn and finish the assignments really helped me understand the subject better.

- Through this course, I have gained a tremendous amount of knowledge. It has been particularly effective in translating theoretical concepts into practical skills. The hands-on approach has been incredibly beneficial, allowing me to apply what I've learned in real-world scenarios. I am especially grateful to Alexander Sir for his dynamic teaching style. His ability to make each class interactive has enhanced our understanding and engagement. The course has not only been informative but also deeply meaningful, thanks to his efforts. I truly appreciate how he made the learning process both enjoyable and impactful.This course taught me to learn various computer programming languages and be comfortable with that. I really enjoyed taking up this course.

1.5) What changes could have been made to enhance your learning in this course?

- I believe this course is perfect as it is and doesn't require any changes.

- If professor open the code review section, like TA teaches the stuffs related to home assignments for students, it would be good. But, overall the class was good.

- In my opinion, everything was well-suited for my learning in this course, so I would not suggest any changes.

- It would be nice to have access to the powerpoint slides as pdfs.

- More feedback session on project progress and less homework load.

- No, it's perfect

- No changes.

- No changes required

- none

- Nothing

- not much

- Overall, I really enjoyed this class, and I learned so much! There is not much to change, but I felt as though there was not much guidance when asking for help on some of the homework problems. For example, the tracking in homework 3.

- The course was fine as is.

- The peer review process for project proposals is very important but it did not work this semester. I had extremely low effort reviews that clearly did not read my proposal. I'm not sure how to fix this but it is important.
